Entertained By Elder Morgan.

What promises to be an awakening of unusual interest among the Christian churches of Bourbon county was inaugurated here Saturday by Elder Carey E. Morgan, pastor of the Paris Christian church, when he entertained at dinner at Crosdale's cafe the pastors and one or more of the leading laymen of the Christian churches at Millersburg, North Middletown, Clintonville, Mt. Carmel, Bethlehem, Rud-des Mills, Little Rock and Cane Ridge.

After the dinner the party repaired to the parlors of the Christian church where the conference took place. The purpose of the meeting as outlined by Elder Morgan, was threefold in its character. First, the cultivation of a more friendly relationship between the congregations of the various churches of Bourbon county in all the matters of general and local religious interest; second, the concentration of missionary offerings to the end that the county churches can sustain a living link in the movement for greater development for power and good in foreign missions; third, preparation for a large delegation from Bourbon county to attend the Centennial gathering in Pittsburg in October of the Christian churches of the world, in commemoration of the one hundredth anniversary of the address and declaration of Thomas Campbell, father of Alexander Campbell, who with other contemporaries paved the way for the reformation.

Bourbon county lays claim to the birth place of the reformation and that a large delegation should go to represent the historic Cane Ridge meeting house where more than one hundred years ago the renowned Barton W.
Stone first sounded the keynote that resounded to the four corners of the earth in the greatest religious meeting ever held West of the Alleghenies.

Among those present were: Little Rock, Elder Koch and L. A. Soper; North Middletown, Elder J. W. Ligon and Ed. Rice; Ruddles Mills, Elder Joel Lee Jones; Millersburg, Elder W.
A. Gardner and Dr. W. V. Huffman; Bethlehem, Lloyd Ashurst; Cane Ridge, Warren Rogers; Mt. Carmel, Elder Jones; Paris, Elder Morgan and J. T. Hinton.

MATRIMONIAL.

MARTIN—MARTIN.

—Ostensibly coming to Paris for a visit to friends, Miss Mary Martin, the pretty and attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Martin, who reside near the Harrison county line, is now Mrs.
E. M. Martin, of Lyons, Nebraska.
Miss Martin left Paris Sunday, April 11, on the 6:15 p. m. Louisville & Nashville train without divulging her destination, going direct to Omaha, where for the first time she met her betrothed, who is a farmer residing near Lyons, Neb., and who was too busy to come to Kentucky for his bride.

Miss Martin arrived on Tuesday morning and was married at 10:30 o'clock. Before information of the wedding came Miss Martin's parents were trying to locate their daughter, so closely had she kept the secret of her going away. The bridegroom is a cousin of the bride.

The wedding of Miss Martin to a Western farmer makes four young ladies of Paris and Bourbon county to marry last week, all of whom found husbands away from home as follows: Miss Sue Buckner to Mr. Charles Thomas Hinkle, Kansas City, Mo.; Miss Elizabeth Huddleston to Mr.
George A. Smith, of Colorado, and Miss Lucy Feedback to Mr. Elmer Fitch, of Louisville.

COBB—M'LAIN.

—Yesterday at the residence of the bride's cousin, Mr. L. R. Bramblett, on Walker's Avenue, Elder Carey E.
Morgan officiating, Miss Anna Belle McLain was united in marriage to Mr.
Hugh Cobb, both of Lexington.

The happy couple came to Paris on the 10 o'clock interurban car accompanied by Miss Addie G. Lail and Mrs. Elizabeth Martin, also of Lexington. The bride is the attractive daughter of Mr. John McLean, a contractor of Lexington, and the bridegroom is manager of the bottling department of the Pepper distilling company.

Mr. and Mrs. Cobb and party returned to Lexington on a late afternoon interurban car.

Second Trial of Beach Hargis.

All is in readiness for the second trial of Beach Hargis at Irvine, Ky., for the killing of his father, the late Jas. Hargis, the noted feud leader of "Bloody Breathitt," and it is expected the case will be reached on the docket some time during today by Judge Adams.

While it is believed that both sides are ready for a trial in the Hargis case, it is known that the defense will make a hard fight for a continuance, it being feared by Mrs. Louellen Hargis, mother of the patricide, that his many recent escapades have greatly prejudiced his case in the minds of the people of Estill county, before whom he is to be tried. On the other hand, the prosecution, led by Attorney A.
Floyd Byrd, will demand a trial, and arguments for and against a continuance will likely consume much time when the case is finally called.

The defendant, who was admitted to bail in the sum of $20,000, has been in jail at Irvine for several weeks, having been surrendered by his bondsmen, who became uneasy because of the numerous escapades of the young patri-cide after being given his liberty.

Much sympathy is expressed for Mrs. Louellen Hargis, the boy's mother, who has shown an almost unparalleled devotion for her wayward son. She is at Irvine ready to go any length for him.
